Freeport Moving Security Zones: The Captain of the Port may impose a Moving Security Zone around any vessel entering the Freeport Harbor. Entry is prohibited within 1000 yards ahead or astern, or 500 yards on each side of a vessel that has a moving security zone placed around it.

A moving security zone begins at U.S. territorial waters and moves with the vessel throughout the entire transit into the Port of Freeport.

Mariners should monitor channel 16 VHF/FM for broadcasts when these security zones are in effect.

Entry into or remaining in the zones described in this section is prohibited unless authorized as follows:

-Moored vessels or vessels anchored in a designated anchorage area are permitted to remain moored or anchored if they come within a security zone described in this section;

- A moored or an anchored vessel in a security zone must remain moored or anchored unless it obtains permission from the Captain of the Port to do otherwise;

-Commercial vessels operating at the waterfront facilities within these zones;

-Commercial vessels transiting directly to or from waterfront facilities within these zones;

-Vessels providing direct operational/logistic support to commercial vessels within these zones;

-Vessels operated by the port authority or by facilities located within these zones;

-Vessels operated by Federal, State, county, or municipal agencies.

All persons and vessels within the moving security zone must comply with the instructions of the Captain of the Port Houston-Galveston and designated on-scene U.S. Coast Guard patrol personnel.

On-scene U.S. Coast Guard patrol personnel include commissioned, warrant, and petty officers of the U.S. Coast Guard.

All Cruise Ships: Vessels may enter within 500 yards of a cruise ship but not closer than 100 yards provided they operate at the minimum speed necessary to maintain a safe course. No person or vessel may enter within 100 yards of a cruise ship unless specifically authorized by the Captain of the Port.

For information on how to obtain authorization to transit a Security Zone contact Sector Houston-Galveston Waterways Management at 281-464-4891.
